FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Three Sierra Lifeflight Employees Honored for 20 Years Dedication to Patient Care

Bishop, CA / August 9, 2017 – Three Sierra Lifeflight employees were recognized for their 20-year commitment to excellence in patient care. Their outstanding performance was highlighted as part of REACH Medical Holdings annual employee awards.

Those honored as recipients of the 20-year tenure award include Kevin McBride, Flight Paramedic; Mike Patterson, Director of Program Operations; and Joyce Heritage, Chief Flight Nurse.

REACH Medical Holdings President, Sean Russell, recognized the commitment of the award winners praising their compassion, dedication, and skill. “Each of these honorees is widely appreciated at Sierra Lifeflight and at REACH Medical Holdings for their loyalty, kindness, and exceptional performance. They truly embody the spirit of our organization and its mission. I am proud to know that individuals with such dedication and industry knowledge are part of the newest program in our organization.”

The names of this year’s honorees will be inscribed on a commemorative plaque, alongside the names of past recipients, and will be displayed at REACH Medical Holdings headquarters in Santa Rosa. In addition to this, recipients will receive a commemorative watch in recognition of their dedication.
